

Sociological-warfare of fast-food spirituality.
This specious species of implausible-deniability.
Self-loathing narcissists rebranded as supremacists.
Flattered by the charm-offensives of banging chaos-merchants.

Welcome to the riots.
Glad you finally made it.
Martial-law on sale
for the price of our children.

Rockstar posers in the cutesy-pie deathcult.
Ain't real gangsters until we betray our ancestors.
Planned-obsolescence for our perpetual-machine.
Slinging the monster-complex of manifest-destiny.

No choice left
but to revolt.
Let's get naked
& fuck up some fascists.

Genocidal-affluence of insidious propaganda.
The message is meaningless, the subtext self-defeating.
Everyday war-crimes, the body-count breaks records.
Thwarted by the algorithm of viral-intercession.

Trying to escape
in between the bars,
But the cage is unlocked,
& we're free to go.

Big-money in treachery, fat-cash in conformity.
Tall-stacks in complicity, mad-dough in mediocrity.
Brutalize, desensitize, normalize, demonetize.
Weaponize, demonize, demolish, & gentrify.

Pretend to matter.
Disposable clatter.
Gilded class-ladders.
Overpriced tatters.

Hoard the currency, applaud redundancy.
Exploit discrepancy, fund the atrocity.

Play the fool to get some likes,
play the troll to catch some clout.
High-risk short-con, no endgame in sight.

The glamour of addiction
& the honor in poverty
will never get you invited to the party.

Nonsensical celebrations to worship the economy.
Human-nature criminalized for the religion of stupidity.
Erecting brutalist temples for labored incarceration.
Outfitting warehouses for camps of concentration.

Stand & fight
or run & hide.
Do what you can or step aside.

Freedom unaffordable, liberty overpriced.
Human-rights rescinded, common-privilege denied.
Voter-suppression kicks out illusion of choice.
Billions wasted on miseducation.

History repeated.
Inhumanity defeated.
Staved off the worst.
To forget how it works.

Going out of business, it's the end-of-the-world.
Oceans are rising, the planet's on fire.
The plague keeps on killing, borders locked down.
Cop murder civilians in urban hunting-grounds.

Shut up & work.
Cry to survive.
Spend it all, save nothing.
Too tired to die.
